

PPL Montana operates electric generation facilities with a combined capacity of more than 2,800 megawatts in Montana and is seeking highly motivated, qualified candidates for the following position:

Utility Worker, Year 1 – Colstrip, MT

This position assists mechanics in performing routine maintenance and major overhaul of the plant equipment.

Responsibilities of this position include performing routine maintenance and major overhaul of the plant equipment, cleaning scrubber vessels, assisting journeymen and providing general cleanup. Use of hydraulic loaders, dump trucks, forklifts, high pressure water blasting equipment, jack hammers, etc., is required. This position requires working in confined spaces and hot, cold, dusty and elevated environments.

A high school diploma or equivalent is required. The successful candidate should have a basic knowledge and experience with hand and power tools and mobile equipment. A valid driver's license is required. Candidates will be required to pass the PPL Skilled Trades Test. Candidate must be 18 years of age and able to lift a minimum of 50 lbs.

For a more detailed description of this position, or to apply online, go to www.pplmontana.com. PPL Montana offers a highly competitive salary as well as health insurance, vision, dental, life, 401k and retirement plans. EOE

Posting Dates 12/22/08-1/7/09